

Barnsley Resort: Hunting Overview

Georgia's award winning Barnsley Resort has partnered with America's leading outfitter, John Burrell's High Adventure Company to develop the South's premier sporting property. The High Adventure Shooting Grounds will encompass 3000 acres of the resort's historic southern estate. The shooting grounds have been designed to create an upland hunting and shooting experience of a lifetime. In addition to a world class quail hunting and sporting clays experience, guests will enjoy a full range of amenities befitting a luxury resort. Barnsley offers exceptional dining, a diverse range of outdoor activities, a newly designed spa, and a state of art golf school set on a Fazio designed golf course.
